My dear Parishioners, dear friends,

At the beginning of July we have the great joy in our diocese of celebrating the ordination of two new priests. Gary Carter and our own Scott Coleman will be ordained by Bishop Richard at Arundel Cathedral on Saturday 5th July at 12noon. All are welcome.

The new priests will celebrate their first Masses at Walton and Molesey. Scott will offer the 11am Solemn Mass on Sunday 6th July. We have been working hard on the preparations for the liturgy! After Mass there will be a drinks & canapes reception in the parish field. I shall speak about this occasion this weekend; suffice it to say this is an amazing event in the history of our parish and probably the first time a first Mass has been offered in Molesey.

This Sunday is the Feast of Corpus Christi takes us to the very heart of our Catholic faith.
Indeed, we could say that the celebration of every Mass is the celebration of the feast of Corpus Christi.

In the Church we understand The Body of Christ to refer to both the sacrament of the Lord's Body and Blood and also to the Church, Herself. When we offer the Sacrifice of the Mass we are never more truly the Church and we participate in the saving sacrifice of Christ Himself. We receive Christ's Body and Blood and we become what we receive, that is the Body of Christ, the Church on earth.

This is a huge responsibility for each of us. To receive Christ's Body we must be free from attachment to sin and confident that we have received sacramental absolution for any serious sins. For serious sins we must get to confession before we come again to Holy Communion, for attachment to sin, which dogs the lives of most of us, a good act of contrition before receiving Holy Communion is always a sound spiritual and devotional principle.

What a profound and great gift this wondrous Sacrament of the altar! Our desire to be in the right disposition to receive Holy Communion is a witness to our faith in the Real of Presence of Jesus Christ. He is here! Body, blood, soul, divinity. Under this form, He gives Himself to us completely. We worship the Sacred Mystery, not as symbol, but as Our Lord and Our God.

With the assurance of my prayers, my blessing and my affectionate good wishes.
Fr Richard

COLLECTION next Sunday 29 June for
