

Walton Heritage Festival

Saturday 18 September

Enjoy a day of family fun and entertainment throughout the town, celebrating Walton's heritage and connection with the River Thames.

Discover local family history in the Parish records
Music and theatre at Riverhouse Barn
Childrens rides and free face painting
Plus, lots of fun games and competitions!

Find out more: wotta.co.uk

Proudly delivered by:

street fair

Bridge Street Fair

11.30am – 4.30pm

All the fun of the fair!

With children's rides, free face painting, fun stalls and entertainment throughout the day.

duckathon

4pm at Walton Wharf

A totally quackers event, the Walton Duckathon is a race between 800 plastic ducks on the River Thames! Ducks will be sold for £2 each with numbers distributed at random and cash prizes up for grabs for the first three ducks over the line.

dog show

12pm at Walton Wharf

Does your dog have that something special that could see them crowned 'Best in Show'? Categories include Prettiest Girl, Handsomest Dog, Cutest Puppy, Best Fancy Dress and My Dog's Got Talent! Entry fee £2.50 per dog per category.

boat trips

Walton Wharf

Head down to Walton Wharf for a tranquil boat trip along the Thames, courtesy of TS Black Swan - Sunbury & Walton Sea Cadets.

tower abseil

All Day

St Mary's Church will be offering an exclusive chance to abseil off the Bell Tower along with the opportunity to delve into the Parish records and discover local family history.

paddleboard

From 12pm at Walton Wharf

If you've ever considered Stand Up Paddleboarding, now's your chance! Blue Chip SUP School will be running quick introductory sessions and demonstrations throughout the afternoon.

truck tow

Truck Tow Competition

From 11.30am at Bridge Street Get your team of up to 8 people together for the Truck Tow Competition to see who's the strongest in Walton!

film shows & tours

All Day

Visit the iconic Cecil Hepworth Playhouse, the last-standing section of the Hepworth Film Studios who will be paying homage to cinema's forgotten pioneer Cecil Hepworth with a series of tours and film screenings.

Find out more: wotta.co.uk

All events and times subject to change.