WELCOME TO MASS Readings and prayers are found in the Parish Missals for The Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Dear Parishioners, dear friends,

On this Sunday in the month of the Holy Souls, 5th November, the Blessing of Graves takes place at:
2pm at Molesey Cemetery 3pm at Burvale Cemetery

Many of us have a place to visit, a loved ones remains have been placed there, a place where we ourselves might one day be laid to rest. These places become part of our pilgrim journey as we recall our memories, continue our conversations and say our prayers.

The blessing of the graves during the month of November is an expression of our continuing love and affection for those who have gone before, marked with the sign of faith. Prayer for the dead is also part of our basic Christian duty, that their journey through purgatory might be swift and that they might enjoy the fullness of the life of Heaven, happy with God for ever.

Sometimes we feel as if we have neglected these places as they are frequently far from home, perhaps even in another country; for many there might be no such formal place of rest. Surely, all of us know, that the most profound place we visit is the human heart and there find the words again to pray: Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon them.

We carry our loved ones in our hearts in the knowledge that their souls are with God. In the immensity of the Divine Plan our faith teaches that God wills to loose nothing of what He has made.

Meanwhile the stories of those for whom we pray are told at the graveside.
Memories are not just treasured, they are also shared, and the story of our own lives turns another page as we prepare, another day closer, to being with our loved ones in the Father's House.

Be assured of my prayers for all your departed loved ones at all the Masses in our churches during the month of November. God bless you all, with my prayers and affectionate good wishes. Fr Richard

ORDER OF MALTA – APPEAL FOR UKRAINE

As the conflict in Ukraine continues, more and more lives are being lost, and homes, hospitals and schools destroyed. Road blockages mean people cannot reach food or medical care. Those fleeing their homes have few resources as they enter neighbouring countries as refugees.

Food, medicine, shelter, welcoming of refugees, care of the elderly and disabled who are not able to flee. This is the work the Order has carried out for centuries and is recognised in the surrounding regions as a trusted frontline provider.

These are the people who need our help now!

BASMOM through our Foreign Aid Service (FAS) is seeking donations towards the Order's frontline care in Ukraine and in the surrounding countries.

You can donate on the following and input BASMOM's charity number 1103567: cafonline.org or you can send a cheque or Bank Transfer to BASMOM FOREIGN AID Services

HOUSE OF PRAYER East Molesey – Programme or Autumn – Winter 2023 Canon, Community and handing on the Faith

Saturday 28 October Led by Rev Dr Bruno Clifton OP. What makes a text canonical and which version are we talking about anyway? The biblical texts have many authors and contributors and yet we do not have any of the texts they wrote, but copies handed down and reduplicated over generations. What does this transmission teach us about the nature of Scripture, God's providence, and the Bible's role in the Church's faith?

Starts at 10am and finishes at 4pm. Please bring a packed lunch. This retreat is available to attend online via Zoom and in-person.

Cost: £30

Fr Bruno is Vice Regent of Blackfriars, Oxford where he teaches Old Testament and Biblical languages. His research interests are the nature of Scripture and its relationship to theology, Israel and the ancient Near East in the Iron Age and the socio-cultural contextualization of biblical texts.
