Confessions By appointment and before and after Saturday Masses

Dear Parishioners, dear friends,

Near the cross of Jesus, we are told in St John's Gospel, stood His mother and the disciple whom He loved. It is an extraordinary scene of harrowing pain and yet the deepest love, it is full of suffering and yet strangely charged with power. St Maximilian Kolbe said that 'The Cross is the school of love'. It is only when we mediate on the cross, when we pray before the cross, that we begin to know what the saint of Auschwitz means.

Most of us learn how to love in our homes and through our mothers. The family might also be described as a school of love. We learn to bear with one another and forgive each other. We learn the power of love that unites and gives joy, that challenges and supports. Unlike the school of the love of the Cross of Christ it is not a perfect love, but its wonder and effectiveness are understood by us, from the earliest of years.

Today we remember our mothers, living and departed. We pray for them and give thanks for them and, if we can, spend time with them. Traditionally, today is called Mothering Sunday, rather than just Mother's Day. The idea is that we celebrate the gift of motherhood even amongst those who are not mothers themselves. This motherly instinct and gift, which is given to so many women and exercised so generously, is surely one of the greatest blessings to the whole human family and it is powerfully known in the life of the Church.

The model of spiritual motherhood is the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God and our Mother. Her Immaculate Heart prepared her for the deepest sufferings, but it also equipped her truly to treasure and share the most wonderful joys of the life of her Son. From her place in Heaven she shares these joys with us now and helps us to bear our sufferings, after all she cradled the Lord of Heaven and Earth in her arms and stood by Him at the Cross.

As I give thanks for the gift of my own dear mother, I also thank God for all those whose motherly love and maternal care at the heart of our community build us up, inspire us and nurture us. Some of you who are reading this are those sorts of women and we are so grateful to you and send you our love and our prayers today.

The gospel for this Sunday reminds us that it was Jesus Himself who said, 'And when I am lifted up from the earth I shall draw all things to myself.' May God who loved the world so much that He gave us His only Son, keep us close to the school of love at which our Heavenly Mother stands.

With my prayers and affectionate good wishes
Fr Richard

THE OPENING OF CHURCHES FOR PRIVATE PRAYER & PUBLIC MASSES

The churches are open for private prayer during the day. The churches are also open for Mass.

Bear in mind that the doors of the churches will be open, so it will be possible to be outside the building itself but have a reasonable connection with the celebration of the liturgy.

We need to be attentive to safety and social distancing requirements. There will be limited space in the churches, but the doors will be open, and those who don't mind standing can participate in the Mass from outside the church as long as social distance is observed.

PLEASE NOTE

- The obligation to be at Sunday Mass continues to be suspended until further notice.
- The homily will be short!
- We are not permitted to sing together.
- Holy Communion will now be distributed in the usual place. Please remove your face coverings in preparation for the reverent reception of Holy Communion.
- Every effort will be made to avoid any possible transmission of the virus.

- The celebrant's hands will be thoroughly cleansed before the distribution of Holy Communion.
- Take advantage of the weekday Masses to spread the numbers and assist safe space.
- Please wear face coverings.

PRAYERS & DEVOTIONS

Soul of Christ, sanctify me;

Body of Christ, save me;

Blood of Christ, inebriate me;

Water from the side of Christ, wash me;

Passion of Christ, strengthen me;

O good Jesus hear me;

Within your wounds hide me;

Suffer me not to be separated from you,

From the evil one protect me;

At the hour of my death, call me;

And bid me come to thee; That with thy saints I may be praise thee

For all eternity. Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion

This prayer is said when it is not possible for us to receive Holy Communion. If you are watching a live stream Mass you might like to say the prayer as the priest receives Holy Communion.

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

For those who are suffering

O God, who willed that our infirmities be borne by your Only Begotten Son to show the value of human suffering, listen in kindness to our prayers for our brothers and sisters who are sick; grant that all who are oppressed by pain, distress or other afflictions may know that they are chosen among those proclaimed blessed and are united to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen

Merciful God, come to the help of your people. Be our shelter in this time of peril and strengthen the bonds of our community. Bring healing to all who suffer the ravages of disease and assist those whose skill and art can put an end to this affliction. Through Christ our Lord. Amen

The Memorare to Our Lady

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession was left unaided.

Inspired with this confidence, I fly to you, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother. To you I come, before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful.

O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in your mercy, hear and answer me.

THE GIFT - A SHORT DVD COURSE

Do you know how much God loves you personally and wants you to know him better?

We know he loves us in our heads, but do we feel it in our hearts?

Have you ever given time to open up the gift you were given at baptism?

The prayer group which meets weekly on a Thursday evening warmly invites you to join them for the evenings following this short course that has been recommended by Pope Francis. We will journey through Lent to Easter together.

Each week we will listen to a speaker and share our reflections in a small group with an experienced leader.

At week six we will pray for The Holy Spirit to deepen our awareness of God's personal love for us and his dynamic Spirit within us.

We will run the course on Zoom and we can help you access this if you have never used Zoom before. It has been new to most of us this year. Course runs Thursdays 7.15pm until the 25th March, you can join any Thursday. To register please email johngerard@talktalk.net or lalana.pang@gmail.com

MARY'S MANTLE CONSECRATION

This self-directed spiritual retreat has resulted in miracles in the lives and hearts of those who have applied themselves to it. St. Pope John Paul II said that his consecration to Mary was a "decisive turning point in my life". It incorporates four models of prayer that have stood the test of time and truth in moving and melting the heart of God: The Rosary (daily), spiritual readings (daily), fasting (weekly) and consecration to Mary. It is suitable for busy individuals, families, and groups. Mary's Mantle Consecration in our Deanery continues until 25th March, the Feast of the Annunciation. Mass will be celebrated on that day at 9.30am at Hersham and at 7pm a Solemn Mass at Molesey with an act of consecration to Our Lady.

Information available by emailing weybridgemarysmantle@gmail.com

EASTER RETREAT Join the Wellspring Community, Monks of Worth Abbey, and young people from across the country in this interactive online retreat over the Easter Triduum. With a mixture of prayer, small groups and talks there is a great opportunity to journey with others deeper into the mystery of Easter, the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

We have created the timetable in such a way that you should be able to attend the liturgies in your local church and if this is not possible, we will offer guidance in how to create a prayerful liturgy at home. Should one of the sessions clash with your local liturgy you will have access later so you can catch up. Plenty of space will be given to allow for deep reflection and personal journeying with God."
