Confessions By appointment and before and after Saturday Masses

My dear parishioners,

With tender care and diligent watering things seem to be taking off in the garden. Even for those of us who don't reckon our fingers to be especially green, there are satisfying results. I am delighted with my new rose, Lichfield angel, but I'm mindful that it was a very good plant in the first place.

The way we are nurtured is largely a random business. At a young age we have little control over home and school and even church! We know that the stuff of our background and the care we received as we were growing up is crucial in the business of who we are. Whilst many of us will thank God for a good start in life, there are others who wonder why they had to endure so much, so early.

We are told that the grace of God builds on our nature. The collect of today's Mass talks of our mortal frailty declaring that, without God, we can do nothing. There are times when we need all the help we can get, especially when we feel frail – physically, emotionally, morally – in ourselves. This help we call the grace of the sacraments.

The sacraments make us holy, they work on the soul, for our healing and our restoration and our goodness. Rightly, we can excuse a lot in our make up and character, our foibles and even our sins, but we should never take the call to holiness lightly. It may be a million miles from the wholeness we would desire, but ultimately it is the holiness of our being rather than the wholeness of our lives that counts.

St Paul writes about the body today. Whilst he is clearly talking about the things that make people like us blush, it is not his exclusive theme. The body is the context of our lives and the good we do is done here and now, in the life of the body.

All this is obvious. We can only function in the body, whether we are strong or weak, whether we are dealing with our baggage or leaping for joy in a lightness of being. But the interior life, the life of the soul, is the abiding reality of our existence. We are good plants! Made for good by our good God. Let us take every opportunity to be tended and watered so that we might thrive and flourish like those Lebanon cedars, like my Lichfield angel. My prayers and affectionate good wishes. Fr Richard

THE OPENING OF CHURCHES FOR PRIVATE PRAYER & PUBLIC MASSES

The churches are open for private prayer during the day. The churches are also open for Mass.

Bear in mind that the doors of the churches will be open, so it will be possible to be outside the building itself but have a reasonable connection with the celebration of the liturgy.

We need to be attentive to safety and social distancing requirements. There will be limited space in the churches, but the doors will be open, and those who don't mind standing can participate in the Mass from outside the church as long as social distance is observed.

PLEASE NOTE

- The obligation to be at Sunday Mass continues to be suspended until further notice.
- We are not permitted to sing together.
- Holy Communion will now be distributed in the usual place. Please remove your face coverings in preparation for the reverent reception of Holy Communion.
- Every effort will be made to avoid any possible transmission of the virus.
- The celebrant's hands will be thoroughly cleansed before the distribution of Holy Communion.
- Take advantage of the weekday Masses to spread the numbers and assist safe space.
- Please wear face coverings.

PRAYERS & DEVOTIONS

Soul of Christ, sanctify me;
Body of Christ, save me;
Blood of Christ, inebriate me;
Water from the side of Christ, wash me;
Passion of Christ, strengthen me;
O good Jesus hear me;
Within your wounds hide me;
Suffer me not to be separated from you,
From the evil one protect me;
At the hour of my death, call me;
And bid me come to thee; That with thy saints I may be praise thee
For all eternity. Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion

This prayer is said when it is not possible for us to receive Holy Communion. If you are watching a live stream Mass you might like to say the prayer as the priest receives Holy Communion.

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

For those who are suffering

O God, who willed that our infirmities be borne by your Only Begotten Son to show the value of human suffering, listen in kindness to our prayers for our brothers and sisters who are sick; grant that all who are oppressed by pain, distress or other afflictions may know that they are chosen among those proclaimed blessed and are united to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen

Merciful God, come to the help of your people. Be our shelter in this time of peril and strengthen the bonds of our community. Bring healing to all who suffer the ravages of disease and assist those whose skill and art can put an end to this affliction. Through Christ our Lord. Amen

CAFOD – *Climate Change Petition:

This year, the UK will host the largest gathering of world leaders ever to take place on British soil: the 'COP26' climate talks in Glasgow in November. As Prime Minister, Boris Johnson must push world leaders to show the ambition we need to keep temperature rises below the disastrous 1.5-degree threshold. This means that all countries must play their part. With the eyes of the world on the UK, we must urge the Prime Minister to make sure communities hardest hit by the climate emergency are listened to at COP26. Please sign our petition at //cafod.org.uk/reclaim

For those without internet access, petition cards can be ordered from the CAFOD Shop: 0300 011 5680. Thank you.
