Saturday Masses at Molesey & Hersham*

My dear Parishioners

Last Summer we were asked to think about how we participated in the life of the parish. 'I am for Christ', a phrase of St Paul, was a way of not just acknowledging what we might already do, but also what we might begin to do. Each parishioner, at Mass over the last Sundays of July, received a card for their response.

Participation is an important theme for our consideration in the lead up to the Synod of Bishops in Rome in 2023. Synods of the Catholic Church are by nature international and their preparation is long and far reaching.

Participation, together with Mission and Communion were the themes of our homilies for Advent Sundays. The link to questions for consideration were offered, and this Sunday I offer a paper copy of my notes for the homilies together with the questions for our responses, if you've not already had a chance to respond.

On Tuesday 8 February at 7pm, Bethan Townsend and I will speak to these questions and themes that have cropped up around the synod discussion. The discussion will be available on the St Barnabas live stream.

On Friday I was tasked with leading a discussion on the Synod for the younger priests of our diocese. I must confess to having found the responsibility rather daunting. The Pope speaks of a listening Church. How does that look? The important thing to say is that listening is first and foremost to do with the way we pray and the way we treat each other. There's not much evidence of the quality of this listening in the big wide world; the Church, listening in the stillness of Her contemplative heart, is something of an antidote to this angry babble.

What a huge responsibility we, as followers of our listening Lord, have in the world. Our listening can often be challenging, but it affords us the luxury of knowing and acting in the Presence and Power of Almighty God in our lives.

*May God bless us all,
With my prayers and affectionate good wishes
Fr Richard*

PRAYERS & DEVOTIONS

Soul of Christ, sanctify me;
Body of Christ, save me;
Blood of Christ, inebriate me;
Water from the side of Christ, wash me;
Passion of Christ, strengthen me;
O good Jesus hear me;
Within your wounds hide me;
Suffer me not to be separated from you,
From the evil one protect me;
At the hour of my death, call me;
And bid me come to thee; That with thy saints I may be praise thee
For all eternity. Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion

This prayer is said when it is not possible for us to receive Holy Communion. If you are watching a live stream Mass you might like to say the prayer as the priest receives Holy Communion.

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

For those who are suffering

O God, who willed that our infirmities be borne by your Only Begotten Son to show the value of human suffering, listen in kindness to our prayers for our brothers and sisters who are sick; grant that all who are oppressed by pain, distress or other afflictions may know that they are chosen among those proclaimed blessed and are united to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen

Merciful God, come to the help of your people. Be our shelter in this time of peril and strengthen the bonds of our community. Bring healing to all who suffer the ravages of disease and assist those whose skill and art can put an end to this affliction. Through Christ our Lord. Amen
