OPAL Class News

Hello Opal Class!

Well, that was certainly a very different start to the summer term! I hope you are managing to settle into a routine again and are enjoying the daily activities. Thank you for sending in your Roman Projects. I have really enjoyed looking at the creative ways you have presented your research. I have been doing some of my own Roman research and you will never believe what I have discovered: It is thought that Roman Emperor Julius Caesar crossed the River Thames near Walton Bridge at Cowey Sale during his invasion in 54BC. You can read more here:

<https://people.elmbridgehundred.org.uk/biographies/julius-caesar/>

My family are all busy working at home; my son Ed is studying for his GCSE's next year, but he found the time to do last week's science experiment with me. He quite enjoyed freezing a Lego character! Did you? How did your experiments go? There are two more experiments for you to do this week so have fun working scientifically!

I am missing you all and will be phoning everyone again this week to keep in touch and see how you all are doing. Let me know if you have found any useful websites or activities that you like which I could share with the rest of the class, especially for exercise!

PARENTS:

We hope you are finding the new timetable useful. The Hamilton-Trust have numbered their Learning at Home packs differently so please note that for our Summer Week 2, we will be using Hamilton Week 4 and White Rose Summer week 2 resources.

Please remember to consider e-safety when children are working online. If you are having problems with any of your logins, please drop me an email.

Finally, I know Christmas was a while ago, but I have just spent the voucher you kindly gave me. Thank you all once again!
