Confessions: By appointment and before and after the Saturday Masses at Molesey & Hersham.

WELCOME TO MASS Readings and prayers are found in the Parish Missals for The Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time, Year B

My dear Parishioners, dear friends

Our Lenten observance begins this Wednesday, 14 February, on a day the Church calls Ash. Remember that you are dust, we hear as ashes are sprinkled on our heads, and to dust you shall return. It's sobering stuff, especially because most of us have a fear of death.

Last week I found myself in a church in northern Italy, in the beautiful town of Lodi. The church, a former Oratory community of St Philip Neri, had been closed down by Napoleon and the fathers expelled. My fellow retreatants have custody of the church and have spent lots of time and energy cleaning and ordering. The church is now open every day and the Blessed Sacrament has been restored. I had the privilege of offering Mass at the high altar and prayed for our own parishes.

One of the first great tasks was to clear out the crypt where oratorians, before the dissolution (if we can call it that), had been buried. Shortly after the labour intensive project a Mass of Requiem was offered for the deceased fathers and brothers at the newly restored crypt altar. My visit there and our prayers for the dead made a deep impression and I started to think a little bit more seriously about this year's Lent. It seems to me that Lent is about living the season each day and trying to be more consciously in the presence of Almighty God, not least through regular visits to the Blessed Sacrament. But Lent is also that time when we face our mortality and allow the grace of God to calm any fear and help us see our lives as eternal.

Those of us who think about these things have giggled about Ash Wednesday falling on Valentine's Day. Not everybody has to endure an overpriced dinner with their heart's desire, but all of us know that the love of God is at the heart of who we are as human beings, and everything else flows from that.

May our Lent be loving, calming, thoughtful; and may it be marked by generous prayer, fasting in all its forms and sacrificial almsgiving.

May God bless us all

Fr Richard

SECOND COLLECTION THIS Sunday is for the LOURDES PILGRIMAGE FUND (GIFTAID).

At 7pm in Molesey.

Bishop Richard has launched the third edition of his Pastoral Plan, 'The Word who is Life' at the beginning of this new year. The sub-title of this Plan is: 'The Call to Mission. That call to be missionary disciples is a consequence of our Baptism; a responsibility that is placed on every Christian. The plan is available on the diocesan website and I will address its details and challenges over the season of Lent.
