

THE CATHOLIC PARISHES
OF MOLESEY & HERSHAM
St Barnabas Vine Road Molesey

19 SEPTEMBER 2021

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

*I am the salvation of the people, says the Lord.
Should they cry to me in any distress,
I will hear them, and I will be their Lord for ever.*

Parish Priest: Fr Richard Biggerstaff
Residence: 28 Vine Road Molesey KT8 9LF

Confessions: By appointment and before and after the Saturday Masses at Molesey & Hersham

My dear Parishioners,

This Tuesday the funeral rites of Fr Mario Sanderson, a priest of our diocese and sometime parish priest of Mayfield, are celebrated in the church of St Thomas of Canterbury Mayfield. Our own Molesey Mass will be at 9am on that day. Mayfield provided a palace and synod hall for archbishops of Canterbury. Dunstan famously staged there at the end of the Tenth century. Within 40 years of his death, he was canonised and widely venerated.

One hundred and fifty years later an archbishop of Canterbury was to die a martyr's death. The 'turbulent priest', Thomas Becket, was savagely killed in his cathedral by impetuous knights who thought they would please the king. Careless talk really does cost lives and Henry II lived to rue the day. Thomas of Canterbury's cult spread quicker than Dunstan's and many miracles were quickly attributed to his heavenly intercession. He was declared saint within three years of his death and a beautiful shrine was erected in Canterbury Cathedral.

At the Protestant reformation in the 1530s King Henry VIII ordered that the shrine be desecrated. Having previously honoured the martyr bishop he now despised him and his own careless talk and fickle faith meant the virtual destruction of English Catholic life and culture in the great places of pilgrimage in our land. Only the sainted King Edward at Westminster survived these vicious acts of sacrilegious vandalism.

Dunstan's dining room survives in Mayfield as the very beautiful chapel for the Catholic girls school of St Leonard's Mayfield. The Holy Child sisters, whose foundation this was, ensure that the chapel is well kept and the Blessed Sacrament is reserved there.

Fr Mario loved being parish priest of Mayfield. A convert to the Faith, he had all that sense of the Catholic history of the place and an infectious enthusiasm for the love of Jesus Christ and His Holy Church. Please say a pray for the repose his dear soul. My affectionate good wishes and my prayers for you all.

Fr Richard

I AM FOR CHRIST

-Please take a blank card with my name and address.

-I invite you to use this card to consider offering one or two things you might do in the life of the parish.

-Use the card for your suggestions and remember that your comments and ideas will be shared by the family of the parish.

-Return the card to me at Masses over the next couple of weeks. You can email your response (my email address and phone number is on the card) if that's easier.

-Use the e mail and phone number to be in touch whenever you like.

-With help, I will draw up a profile of tasks and priorities and we can then take things further as we, please God, emerge from a life of restrictions and learn to live again more normally.

-Remember that the life of the Church is not just about the maintenance of things

(jobs around the building and tasks centred on the liturgy) it is also about the mission of the Church and how we reach out to the lapsed and the searching.

-I have left the card blank and without suggestion so as to make it as free and creative a response as possible but hope for specific suggestions as to what you could offer rather than what somebody else should be doing.

OUR CHURCHES AFTER 19 JULY

The churches are open for private prayer during the day and are also open for Mass. All Saints is open every day from 9am to 4pm.

We need to be attentive to the lessons of safety and consideration we have lived with over the last 18 months. Things are now changing, but this needs to be a gentle process. Be assured that the churches are regularly cleaned and always well ventilated as we return to capacity and are no longer required to socially distance.

PLEASE NOTE

- The obligation to be at Sunday Mass continues to be suspended until further notice.
- Every effort will be made to avoid any possible transmission of the virus and to this end those who have any concerns about their own health and contacts should stay at home.
- Sanitisers will continue to be provided but the system of stewarding will cease.
- Be assured that the celebrant's hands will be thoroughly cleansed before the distribution of Holy Communion.

- Please continue to come to Holy Communion in an orderly manner.
- The wearing of face coverings continues to be encouraged.

Soul of Christ, sanctify me;

 O good Jesus hear me;
 Within your wounds hide me;
 Suffer me not to be separated from you,
