Confessions: By appointment and before and after the Saturday Masses at Molesey & Hersham

My dear Parishioners

Seventy years ago, King George VI died and his daughter became Queen Elizabeth II. There are days in June set aside to celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee – days that mark the anniversary of her Coronation – but tomorrow is the anniversary of the Day of her Accession.

Writing in The Telegraph, Charles Moore uses this anniversary to reflect on 'gratitude'. The springboard for his article is the expression of gratitude that most of us would want to convey to the Queen. And, in this, Charles Moore encourages us not to wait until June! The Queen is alive today, but she will be 96 in April.

The sorts of personal qualities for which the Queen is generally admired have been well-rehearsed, and Moore alights on two of them, that would (in all probability) be right up there at the top of the list of the things for which we would want to give thanks: her service (which, we know has been tireless) and her faith (which we know is deep, and real, and personal).

There is an interesting connection between faith and service in a prayer which Her Majesty will undoubtedly offer tomorrow, from the Book of Common Prayer of the Church of England. It's a prayer of 'general thanksgiving', crafted in the beautiful language of another age, in which the 'unworthy servant' asks God to give 'that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we may shew forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up ourselves to thy service...'

The underlying truth of the prayer is that only if you can be humble enough to give thanks, can you also give service. For the giving of thanks, rooted in a proper sense of reliance on another (in the case of the prayer, a reliance upon God) promotes a disposition that orders us towards the other, and not towards self.

The Queen knows that her lifelong role does not spring from merit, but (rather) from 'accident of birth', from the abdication of her uncle, and from the death of her father. She knows that she is (as the 'General Thanksgiving' puts it) an 'unworthy servant' – and as such (as we learnt from that intimate Christian portrait of her, published under the title 'The Queen and the King she serves') – as such, she is one trying every day to be worthier, the better to serve.

We know the Queen is grateful to her father for first showing her this quality. And on this anniversary of his death, he is probably in her first waking thought. But we know, too, that, because of her faith, the model she also holds before her is not only that of her father, the late King, but also her Father in heaven.

May God bless us all,

With my prayers and affectionate good wishes Fr Richard

Soul of Christ, sanctify me;
Body of Christ, save me;
Blood of Christ, inebriate me;
Water from the side of Christ, wash me;
Passion of Christ, strengthen me;
O good Jesus hear me;
Within your wounds hide me;
Suffer me not to be separated from you,
From the evil one protect me;
At the hour of my death, call me;
And bid me come to thee; That with thy saints I may be praise thee
For all eternity. Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion

This prayer is said when it is not possible for us to receive Holy Communion. If you are watching a live stream Mass, you might like to say the prayer as the priest receives Holy Communion.

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

For those who are suffering

Through Christ Our Lord. Amen

Merciful God, come to the help of your people. Be our shelter in this time of peril and strengthen the bonds of our community. Bring healing to all who suffer the ravages of disease and assist those whose skill and art can put an end to this affliction. Through Christ our Lord. Amen
