Fourth Sunday of Advent, Year C*

Dear Parishioners, dear friends,

Mary, the new Eve, is commanded by the Angel to listen. It is the key word in the Gospel of the Annunciation and it is, as it were, that moment when the whole of creation prepares to hold its breath.

Of old, Eve had failed to listen to the voice of God and heed His Divine Will. Mary's perfect listening, her complete obedience, puts all that right and the scene is set for the moment of Incarnation.

The Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, the Eternal Word of the Father, takes flesh in Mary's womb by the power of the Holy Spirit as Mary says, 'Behold, the handmaid of the Lord, let what you have said be done unto me'.

From this moment the plan of our salvation comes to fruition. Through Mary's yes creation can breathe again, the birth of Jesus in human flesh will bring about our union with God and equip us for our own ability to listen and be obedient to God.
