Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B*

My dear Parishioners, dear friends

Cardinal Vincent Nichols, President of the Bishops' Conference, has offered his congratulations to new Prime Minister Keir Starmer after Labour's election victory. Cardinal Nichols wrote to the PM to assure him of his prayers as the Labour leader forms a new government.

"On behalf of the Catholic community in England and Wales I should like to congratulate you on your victory in yesterday's general election," wrote Cardinal Nichols. "I assure you of my good wishes as you take up your new responsibilities in forming and leading a government."

The Cardinal, acknowledging the challenges of leadership, said the Catholic Church stands ready to work constructively with the government in matters of education and other areas that serve the common good:

"The Catholic Church has a long record of partnership with the UK Government, not least in the area of education where we run over two thousand schools in conjunction with the state. We look forward to this continuing and to working constructively in this and other areas with you, your ministers, and officials.

"Your previous comments about wanting a government which works with churches and faith communities have been most welcome, and I want you to know that we stand ready to play our part.

"I know that the road ahead is, perhaps, not the easiest one but I wish you well as you embark upon it. I will keep you and your family in my prayers."

I look forward to seeing you from 11 July.

I'm sure you join me in gratitude to Fr Ian McDole and Fr Richard Di Lord who will cover the Masses this weekend 6/7 July.

On Sunday 14 July our new deacons, Scott and Gary join us for the Solemn Mass at 11am at Molesey followed by a Corpus Christi procession. There will be drinks after the procession. On Monday 15 July the St Alban's School Mass for leavers is celebrated at St Barnabas at 6pm.

With the assurance of my prayers, my blessing and my affectionate good wishes.

Fr Richard

ORDER OF MALTA – APPEAL FOR UKRAINE

As the conflict in Ukraine continues, more and more lives are being lost, and homes, hospitals and schools destroyed. Road blockages mean people cannot reach food or medical care. Those fleeing their homes have few resources as they enter neighbouring countries as refugees.

Food, medicine, shelter, welcoming of refugees, care of the elderly and disabled who are not able to flee. This is the work the Order has carried out for centuries and is recognised in the surrounding regions as a trusted frontline provider.

These are the people who need our help now!

BASMOM through our Foreign Aid Service (FAS) is seeking donations towards the Order's frontline care in Ukraine and in the surrounding countries.

You can donate on the following and input BASMOM's charity number 1103567:

THE HOUSE OF PRAYER SUMMER PROGRAMME 2024

<https://www.christian-retreat.org/our-programme>

- Friday 19 July – Sunday 21 July
Led by Nicola Mason

God created us human and chose in the incarnation to share our humanity, yet many of us seem to feel or act as if being the particular human we are - in all our unvarnished reality - hinders us from sharing in God's life, or from being the holy people we long to be. We can be dogged by a sense that we need to improve and tempted to bring only selected parts of ourselves to prayer. This weekend, in company with saints and writers past and present, we will look at how we can learn to pray with all of our humanity, and discover that every part of ourselves and our experience is holy ground, and the place of our encounter with God. Arrive in time for supper at 7pm on Friday and depart by 4pm on Sunday Cost: En-suite: £230. Standard: £210
<https://www.christian-retreat.org/our-programme/full-humanity>

- One Thing is Needful: a Day with Martha, Mary and Jesus

Saturday 27 July. Led by Dr Antonia Lynn Martha and Mary are often seen as opposites, and we think we know all about them: it's better to be like Mary sitting at the feet of Jesus than Martha grumbling in the kitchen... But there's much more to these two sisters who were both such close friends of Jesus, especially if we consider their stories in John's Gospel as well as Luke's. They can reveal much about our human complexity and how it enriches our faith. This will be a reflective day, with input to evoke thought and prayer, and plenty of gentle, relaxing space to ponder the "Martha and Mary" within each of us, finding our own unique way to deepen our friendship with Our Lord. Starts at 10am and finishes at 4pm. Please bring a packed lunch.. Cost: £30. Overnight stay (B&B – Fri – Sat) + day retreat: £85

<https://www.christian-retreat.org/our-programme/one-thing-is-needful>

- Choosing Life. Christopher Chapman

Friday 2 – Sunday 4 August

A retreat for those seeking new direction in their lives. Choices face us within our relationships, work, and ministry. Sometimes we are aware of a specific choice that is ours to make; at other times what we recognise is the need for change, without seeing where this leads us. Sometimes events jolt us out of our former path and we don't know how to respond. Drawing on themes and prayer exercises from the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises, this retreat will provide the space and resources to explore new directions, as we become aware of the invitation of the Spirit. God desires to lead us into our own truth: a truth that will set us free and enable our lives to be fruitful.

Arrive in time for supper at 7pm on Friday and depart by 4pm on Sunday. Cost: En-suite: £230. Standard: £210. Christopher is an experienced retreat leader and spiritual director. He is the author of Seeing in the Dark, Earthed in God and Send My Roots Rain. He is a regular guest director at St. Beuno's Jesuit Spirituality Centre and teaches spirituality at St. Augustine's College of Theology
