WELCOME TO MASS *Readings and

Most Holy Trinity, Year B*

My dear Parishioners, dear friends

In the great mystery of God there are things we say about God which are very specific. We do not pretend to understand all that God is, but we confidently say that He is love. For those of us who believe this is as natural as stating that we are human. Indeed we understand God, at this level, because of a God given ability to know Him and a desire and capacity to love Him and a need to serve Him. This need is what makes sense of our lives. We cannot serve a thing or even another person in the way that we serve Almighty God.

In faith we believe that God made us and we come to this understanding by asking the basic question of human existence - Who made me? The answer to our origin is a loving Creator, we were formed in the womb, we were known by God from the first moment of our existence. All this has consequences for human living.

How frequently we get it wrong. We treat each other as a commodity, we dispose of life like garbage, we even (and perhaps especially) fail to love ourselves. So God comes amongst us, in the person of Jesus Christ God becomes fully human and yet He is God. He shares with us everything about our humanity and though He does not sin He takes all our sins upon Himself. He dies on the Cross to show us the depth of God's love, even His blessed Mother becomes the Mother of us all.

And after the Resurrection and Ascension of this God made flesh, God comes to us again, to be with us for ever, the Spirit of truth who can only be known by those who have desired again to love God with God's help.

All this is the work of the One, True God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, the God who is and who was and who is to come.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, three Persons in one God. Glory be to Him who has called us into existence and filled us with grace to live a life pleasing to Him and given us the abiding gift of His presence. To the One, True God let us give glory every Sunday and every day and every minute of every day.

A very happy feast of the Blessed, Most Holy and Undivided Trinity to you all.

With the assurance of my prayers, my blessing and my affectionate good wishes.

Fr Richard

GIFT AID SCHEME To all parishioners of Hershams and Molesey who are signed up for the Parish Gift Aid Scheme, could you please contact the parish office with your email address? The reason for this is to help the parishes save costs on envelopes and postage if you opt to post them. The system was set up a long time ago, and not everyone had an email address at that time. Many thanks in advance.

With the previous suspension of Sunday Masses and the lack of a Sunday collection, please consider the financial needs of the parishes. Whilst it might be possible to set aside your Sunday contribution why not think about a standing order to the parishes?

These are the people who need our help now!
