

AUTHOR VISIT – CHRIS DUKE
TUESDAY 10TH MARCH

As part of the health and wellbeing curriculum, we are delighted to announce that we have author, Chris Duke, visiting our school to talk about his book, “Lucy’s Blue Day”.

The book is written to help children understand their emotions, and to encourage mental health awareness. It has received positive comments from the likes of Stephen Fry, Dr Ranj and Lorraine Kelly describing the book as “charming, and well needed in today’s society.”

It is accessible for all ages from pre-school through Primary. There is also a Diary version, which is more suited towards the upper years – early teens.

Chris will be talking about the book in school to all of our classes, and doing a book signing on the day.

You can pre-order your copy online at www.lucysblueday.com and receive a 20% discount using the code CARDINALNEWMAN – available until 9th March, 2020.

Please enter your child’s name at the checkout to ensure it gets to the right person. Select “author visit” at the delivery option, and Chris will bring them on the day – these orders are not posted!

If you are ordering something other than the books, please add the school, as well as the child’s name to the notes.

Please note, the discount is available only online.
